We will have an hour of testing session followed by an hour of discussion session.

Testing Session:

A mission would be provided and you are left on your own to work towards the mission.

You may use any tools or any techniques. You are responsible for your testing. You can ask questions in this chat or ping me in private if you do not want to disturb others.

Please feel free to ask any questions. You can pair up with any tester or wish to work solo.

WT50 Chat Transcript

In the discussion session, we will discuss on how you approached the mission, learning, mistakes and any other interesting experience.

And finally we are here to learn, share knowledge in a fail safe environment.

Lets get started.

Mission:

FireShot is a browser addon which captures, edits, annotates, organizes, exports, uploads and prints screenshots of your web pages.

They are facing a problem with many issues being raised on their support page and most of them lack important information. Please work in pairs and go through the issues logged and add additional information to help the programmer.

<http://screenshot-program.com/fireshot/>

You will have to register as a user here :

<http://screenshot-program.com/sup/index.php?a=vforum&f=12>

Can you find the root cause and help the programmer fix the issues faster? Let us see.

Any questions?

[3:59:38 PM] Jassi: Is it necessary to work in pairs?

[3:59:55 PM | Edited 4:00:14 PM] Jassi: and How to decide who is picking which issue

[4:07:18 PM] Weekend Testing: ok, some of the bug reports are incomplete

[4:07:20 PM] Maik: in my understanding we can help him by providing information; maybe "better" than it is currently in the bug reports?

[4:07:36 PM] Weekend Testing: Yes, any information that makes the bug reports better helps :)

[4:11:40 PM] Jassi: :)

[4:11:41 PM] Mohinder Khosla: @Erkan Anyone wants to pair and divide the bug report with me so we can go through the list and make intelligent suggestions. Not every bug can be covered in the allocated time

[4:11:45 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: Coming.

[4:11:48 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: :)

[4:12:29 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: @Mohinder sure we can pair, but I'm still getting info on the tool, will look on bug repository now

[4:12:44 PM] Mohinder Khosla: @WT How do we know which of th bugs have been fixed?

[4:13:00 PM] Maik: hm, in "typewithme".. should we find some issue number on the bug report forum? we selected <http://screenshot-program.com/sup/index.php?a=vtopic&t=48> but that doesnt have a "number"

[4:13:01 PM] nitinpurswani: @vamshi wants to pair and start discussion

[4:13:26 PM] akibakib91: @Pradeep, Santhosh- I want to pair with you both.

[4:13:53 PM] Weekend Testing: maybe the last number in the URL would also help

[4:14:05 PM | Edited 4:14:11 PM] Weekend Testing: I am sure every bug would have a unique URL

[4:14:21 PM] Mohinder Khosla: @Erkan Have not used typewith me before do you know how? or you prefer to communicate via skype?

[4:29:26 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: @Weekend testing: in the link you gave there are 12 pages with each having 20 entries, that means 240 things to read :)

[4:29:55 PM] Weekend Testing: If you read all the bugs, its 240

[4:30:00 PM] Weekend Testing: pick 5, you have 5 :)

[4:30:25 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: so, my question: which 5? let me explore more the page, if there is some criteria to sort like risk

[4:30:39 PM] Weekend Testing: ok. Its upto you.

[4:31:20 PM] Amit Kulkarni: Has anybody got to support page? When you're at that page it still does not highlight the link for me, at least!

[4:32:36 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: link?

[4:32:44 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: extension installed for chrome 8.x (linux) + watching: <http://screenshot-program.com/fireshot/demo.php>

[4:33:31 PM] Weekend Testing: @Amit, you are unable to click on the bug reports link>?

[4:34:28 PM] Amit Kulkarni: I am in there ...I said when you click on "Support" it does not get highlighted to make sure we are on support page, but that not much of importacne but weird though!

[4:43:02 PM] Weekend Testing: @Erkan: will you add a bug report?

[4:44:43 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: I just added a sample one to see what is offered as input criteria, but it is just a sample forum

[4:44:47 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: nothing like bugzilla/mantis

[4:45:09 PM] Weekend Testing: ok. Hope you add a new bug soon :)

[4:45:38 PM] Weekend Testing: last 15 mins

[4:45:43 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: perhaps this one? "strange: I'm using the extension + can not save yet something, it seems as I can select + capture, but seems the last dialog which should appear to tell me where to save disappears fast." also copy to clipboard won't work Will look more chrome 8.x on ubuntu64 10.10"

[4:45:53 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: Erkan__Yilmaz needs to investigate after session

[4:46:04 PM] Weekend Testing: ok

[4:47:50 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: coming in now

[4:48:01 PM] Amit Kulkarni: so here is the list of 5 bugs now if you have some add them into the list and now we start with the actual work of reproducing and if possible adding more info.

[5:01:39 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: All ears

[5:01:58 PM] Weekend Testing: So, congrats on completing the testing session.

Let us start the discussion session.

I have few questions for you. Feel free to share your experiences or any interesting snippets & don't feel restricted by the questions.

[5:02:15 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: stopped

[5:02:26 PM] Weekend Testing: ok,

[5:03:07 PM] Weekend Testing: How many of you have worked on support issues - trying to reproduce the issue before assigning to programming team? How different was this session compared to that?

[5:03:20 PM] Weekend Testing: who's going first?

[5:04:13 PM | Edited 5:04:23 PM] Weekend Testing: Anyone is working late night for this session?

[5:04:59 PM] Jassi: working late night?

[5:05:01 PM]  Pradeep Soundararajan sent WT50 Pradeep Soundararajan and Santhosh Tuppada.pdf ***

[5:05:03 PM] Mohinder Khosla: I was successful installing firefox version but ie install on windows 7 failed. firefox version ran a short demo how to use the product but I could not get past that screen to perform anything useful

[5:05:03 PM] Maik: [5:03 PM] Weekend Testing:

<<< How many of you have worked on support issues - trying toAs in real life ? at real work?

[5:05:30 PM] Weekend Testing: Just paste in your answers, we will discuss. Yes @ Jassi. Real office work

[5:06:05 PM] Maik: tsts

[5:06:10 PM] Jassi: I have worked on support issues

[5:06:18 PM] Jassi: but not late nights of course

WT50 Chat Transcript

[5:06:53 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: Mohindar, had same issue with the firefox install, it then continually asked me if I would like to continue running scripts, finally had to give up on Firefox and use Chrome. Firefox Add on Screen still stuck open now, will have to kill with task manager

[5:07:16 PM] Mohinder Khosla: Erkan amd me looked at some of the issues but could not reproduce them. Erkan was using Linux whereas I was on win7. Erkan was looking for bugs that relate to linux os whereas I was looking for bugs that ran on win7 ignoring taht were reported against windows server

[5:07:46 PM] Weekend Testing: ok, so What was your impression on reading the bug reports?

Was it easy to understand the bug reports?

[5:08:13 PM | Edited 5:08:19 PM] Weekend Testing: Pradeep & Santhosh have expressed some of their their views in the pdf.

[5:08:48 PM] Mohinder Khosla: Michael, I did not have time to install for chrome. Did not find my favourite Safari browser

[5:09:05 PM] Weekend Testing: Nitin, Vamshi, Riyaj you there?

[5:09:07 PM] Maik: i didnt get the pdf

[5:09:18 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: some general observations

[5:09:19 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: No PDF here either

[5:09:21 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: 1. good is they give some kind of info. This linese "Warning before posting bugr eports: please take into account that your bugreports will be ignored if you don't include the following info about your problem:..."

posted one sample test:

<http://screenshot-program.com/sup/index.php?a=vtopic&t=963>

2. but I wouldn't use a forum, since e.g. sort criteria are not doable, which one is the most risk to fix now?

3. status of bugs hard to overview

bugs which are resolved should be made visible, e.g. status closed or change title "Need License information" to "SOLVED: Need License information"

<http://screenshot-program.com/sup/art958.htm>

WT50 Chat Transcript

4. there are 3 bugs, which are status sticky in forum, so they are probably somehow important for the software developers (perhaps often reported?)

5. bugs are also in this forum available :(

did someone see that there are two sections in forum which have entry "bug reports" + here:
<http://screenshot-program.com/sup/index.php?a=vforum&f=6> there are also bug reports of teh fireshot listed they should be moved all together in one place

[5:09:42 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: Trying to send again?

[5:09:45 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: anyone get it?

[5:09:49 PM] Mohinder Khosla: @Pradeep, the bug reports were filed by the end users rather than the testers from the cases I looked at

[5:09:57 PM] Jassi: I got it thkx

[5:10:02 PM] Weekend Testing: I got.

[5:10:20 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: oh yeah, Mohinder, many testers don't report any better either.

[5:10:23 PM] Mohinder Khosla: sending report is failing @pradeep

[5:10:25 PM] Weekend Testing: This will be uploaded at WT site if you want to read it later.

[5:10:31 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: ok

[5:10:33 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: No luck here

[5:10:35 PM] Del Dewar: Some bug reports had good version info but no reproduction steps. Other bug reports had good reproduction steps but no version information. Would have been helpful to have both from a support perspective.

[5:10:47 PM] Weekend Testing: If you want it now, ping me separately

[5:11:03 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: [5:10 PM] Del Dewar:

[5:11:06 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: Didnt get PDF I mean

[5:11:33 PM] nitinpurswani: I will say I installed the fireshot version on firefox and chrome. Installation went successfully on both but later found out in some of thread that it is not supported in linux . @Erkan can you atleast take screenshot using chrome

[5:11:40 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: I love Mozilla bug reporting forum where they have given examples of good bug report and point people to read it before they are reporting their first bug.

[5:11:44 PM] Weekend Testing: So, was it very difficult to understand the bugs?

[5:11:45 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: Please use this URL to download the PDF document : <http://tuppad.com/blog/wp-content/uploads/2011/01/WT50-Pradeep-Soundararajan-and-Santhosh-Tuppad.pdf>

[5:11:47 PM] Mohinder Khosla: pdf failed in sending

[5:12:11 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: @Nitin: "@Erkan can you atleast take screenshot using chrome" no, was not possible yet

[5:12:23 PM] Del Dewar: Also found it difficult to get a handle on the plugin versioning. Lots of versions mentioend throughout the pages from 0.80 through 0.87 but no indication (also from product page) whether all versions are potentially Trial, Pro, or Trial & Pro.

[5:12:44 PM] Weekend Testing: [5:12 PM] Del Dewar:

<<< but no indication (also from product page) whether all versions are potentially Trial, Pro, or Trial & Pro.Good point

[5:12:49 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: Agreed, Bug info was limited and not easy to reproduce

[5:13:16 PM] Jassi: sent u the pdf @Mohinder

[5:13:23 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: {Del Dawar: mine on chrome os linux is: "FireShot - Version: 0.88" findable over chrome://extensions/ but a normal user is hard to find :(

[5:13:25 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: Such forums should insist on video recording to be posted. Many many bug reports could have been easily understood.

[5:13:30 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: [5:12 PM] Del Dewar:

<<< 0.80 through 0.87 but no indication (also from product page) whether all versions are potentially Trial, Pro, or Trial & Pro. Totally agree

[5:13:43 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: Have been teaching people to report bugs through videos when they can't explain well.

[5:13:52 PM] nitinpurswani: Bug report forum was like a support forum. Bug reports and support queries we mixed. It was difficult to differentiate if particular thread is a bug or support query

[5:13:54 PM] Weekend Testing: [5:13 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan:

<<< Such forums should insist on video recording to be posted. Many many bug reports could have been easily understood. Right.

[5:14:20 PM] Weekend Testing: After reading the above points, was the bug tracking system bad?

[5:14:30 PM] Del Dewar: Pradeep - would it be realistic to demand video reports from end users? I'm not sure that would be the answer for less techy people.

[5:14:47 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: They need something that will extract the bugs into a proper bug reporting system so they can prioritise and eliminate where necessary.

[5:14:55 PM] Weekend Testing: [5:14 PM] Del Dewar:

<<< I'm not sure that would be the answer for less techy people. I would say that is the best for them, just record & upload.

[5:15:05 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: As FireShot Pro costs $34.95 USD per copy, I think they can afford to have good hosting space to upload screenshot(s) or video(s).

[5:15:22 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: @Del, it would be as realistic as it was when for the first time someone said, "Please put a screenshot for the bug you have reported"

[5:15:35 PM | Edited by Weekend Testing, 5:15:45 PM] Maik: @pradeep

[5:15:47 PM] Amit Kulkarni: [5:13 PM] Weekend Testing:

<<< Such forums should insist on video recording to be posted. Many many bug reports could have been easily understood. Right.

After reading the above points, was the bug tracking system bad? I would say so as there is no info that can make the point clear for others! Some issues mentioned the version but some does not there is that inconsistency!

[5:16:00 PM] Maik: @pradeep.. especially when the tool they have problems with is a screenshot producing tool

[5:16:00 PM] Del Dewar: Agreed, but perhaps a more efficient way of getting the information you need is to embed it in the plugin, so if something does go wrong, it can be organised and sent (with/without user's consent) directly to support? Sort of like Apple MacOS app issues.

[5:16:21 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: In this bug, <http://screenshot-program.com/sup/index.php?a=vtopic&t=929> Could repro, but see at the end and answer came from forum not from Screenshot and mentions RTFM, where is the FM?

[5:16:30 PM] Mohinder Khosla: Some of the bugs reported by end users like us who had problem with the product and issues with some of the functionality. Product owners used Crowd testing to test the features than actually releasing a stable product

[5:16:34 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: Was there a bug tracking system for it to be bad (party)

[5:17:01 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: @Maik, yeah

[5:17:06 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: I would like to say that, FireShot should get a bug tracking system. It's a forum and when the issues grow huge it is hard to prioritize which one to fix first and which one to fix later.

[5:17:07 PM] vamshi: most of the bugs are in windows vista/xp, older version of fireshot and some of the bugs are not elaborated

[5:17:37 PM] Amit Kulkarni: A panic user [not necessarily a tester] would post the information in order to get help but they fail to understand that what they have just mentioned would really help them in getting help!

[5:17:41 PM] vamshi: i mean most of the bugs in windows vista/7 os

[5:17:51 PM] Maik: ok, here is the feedback Jassi and I assembled; took so long to merge our single feedbacks into one

[5:18:00 PM] Maik: Our pair testing approach was to establish, what test environment we have: Jassi had Chrome and FF and Win XP.

I had FF and VISTA x64.

We decided to have a skype call, so we can use our hands more effectively. :)

We tried out three or four different bugs to reproduce them.

We already saw, that the needed info (in our opinion) was spread out over the various posts and replies.

So we just tried to reproduce it in general, also all three or four of the bugs were not reproducible on our systems. All worked.

We de-focused and spoke about the mission and if it makes sense to follow it further.

All the time we were not happy about the "bug tracking".

So we decided to change the mission for us and get off charter.

The decision was, that our feedback can benefit the fireshot company better in the long run.

Some summary is here: <http://typewith.me/jVjn4VJMqJ>

[5:18:23 PM | Edited 5:18:52 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: Expecting a user to be a good bug reporter is as sinful as a tester not reporting a bug well.

[5:18:27 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: Or else they should set rules like the title of the report should include some things which would help the developer(s) to understand and help them to do good job without wasting time.

[5:18:51 PM] Weekend Testing: [5:18 PM] Maik:

<<< All the time we were not happy about the "bug tracking".

So we decided to change the mission for us and get off charter. Awesome

[5:19:00 PM] Maik: @santhosh.. they did a little like that under the forum page

[5:19:04 PM] Mohinder Khosla: I agreed with Santosh that first they need a good bug reporting system so bugs can be prioritised and severity tagged. Bugs with work around should be left to the last

[5:19:10 PM] Maik: Warning before posting bugreports: please take into account that your bugreports will be ignored if you don't include the following info about your problem:

- * Plugin version (i.e. FireShot 0.45)
- * OS type and version (i.e. MS Windows XP Professional SP2, English)
- * Version of Firefox (i.e. Firefox/2.0.0.14)
- * Steps to reproduce the bug (i.e. Start FX, open FireShot editor, create a shape and try to save - you'll get an access violation xxxxxx)

Please include as much additional info as you can because even a small detail can speed up the process of fixing the bug. Thank you for your assistance, your help is much appreciated.

[5:20:11 PM] Del Dewar: Pradeep - agreed. Hence the suggestion of having the plugin collect (or at least try to collect) some of the information on behalf of the end user. May not be applicable in all cases but should in theory cover issues with the plugin itself...

[5:20:24 PM] Jassi: Thanks for consolidating everything Maik , it was great pairing with you :)

WT50 Chat Transcript

[5:20:32 PM] Mohinder Khosla: Some of the bugs did not have environment information in which problems were found, that needs to be address with a follow up

[5:20:59 PM] Weekend Testing: Ok, so anyone found a reproducible bug from the bug reports?

[5:21:23 PM] Maik: @jassi: same same.. was the first pairing it did. Good for me it was you, so the experience was good and i will defenitely try Pairing in the future

[5:21:36 PM] Jassi: :) Me too

[5:21:55 PM] Mohinder Khosla: I have my doubts whther the internal customers had done CAT before going live

[5:21:56 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: @Host, As some of the reports we saw were from 2008 and 2009. And I assume that there have been many versions after that. So, trying to reproduce the same might be a waste of time until we have details about the version etc.

[5:22:03 PM] Maik: one reproducable bug: None was reproducable (for me), cause information was not sufficent in the short time frame

[5:22:12 PM] Jassi: I cannot see the pencils of Nitin,Ashish ,Vamshi moving

[5:22:19 PM] Weekend Testing: CAT?

[5:22:26 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: @Jassi, May be the lead is broken :P

[5:22:53 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: [5:21 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad:

<<< @Host, As some of the reports we saw were from 2008 and 2009. And I assume that there have been many versions after that. [5:23:11 PM] nitinpurswani: Thanks jassi for reminding

[5:23:12 PM] Mohinder Khosla: One conclusion from me is that you need the build to reproduce the bug before you can expand on the bug report

[5:23:26 PM] Maik: @santhosh.. If we assume that the bugs are still there, since no "closing" note is found, than trying to help customers (reproduce bugs) could still be useful

<<< One conclusion from me is that you need the build to reproduce the bug before you can expand on the bug reportNice. You did have the current build with you

[5:23:49 PM] Jassi: Plz go ahead Nitin :)

[5:24:22 PM] Del Dewar: One important bit of environmental information that no-one seemed to provide was whether they were using the Trial or Pro version. This may be crucial to understanding where the issue is, especially if it's with functionality that's present in both Trial & Pro.

[5:24:25 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: @Maik, Agreed :)

[5:24:28 PM] Jassi: Good one @Mohinder

[5:24:36 PM] Weekend Testing: Erkan, Pradeep?

[5:24:44 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: here :)

[5:24:48 PM] Jassi: [5:23 PM] Maik:

<<< If we assume that the bugs are still there, since no "closing" note is found, than trying to help customers (reproduce bugs) could still be useful

[5:24:54 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: observing + enjoying :)

[5:24:56 PM] Maik: @Del: Assuming there is a functional difference between trial and pro.. maybe its only a time limit restriction

[5:25:17 PM] nitinpurswani: As bugs were like support queries we were focusing on finding if that issue got resolved by any workaround and is it marked fixed in last comment . If not we where trying to see if it we can reproduce that in version we have as we never matched the version mention in bug

[5:25:19 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: I have a question after these comments: who would really buy that software?

[5:25:39 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: @Maik, My point was about saving time by knowing little bit more details :) If FireShot had a organized data over a wiki with details on versions, fixes etc. then it would have been better is what I feel.

[5:26:32 PM] Maik: @Erkan.. especially since this tool needs a browser to work. I cant even make a screenshot without my browser open, even i i just want to make one from my desktop

[5:26:33 PM] Mohinder Khosla: @WT By same build I mean, same os on your machime to reporoduce the bug not the same version of firefox

[5:26:34 PM] Del Dewar: wiki would be a good idea ala Santhosh's suggestion, but that data still has to be extrapolated from the user reports.

WT50 Chat Transcript

[5:27:00 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: @Maik: me also neither a pic yet, when I would consider buying this software, it must work from begin or I go to competitors

[5:27:08 PM] Maik: think, Jassi just got a pc crash

[5:27:20 PM] Weekend Testing: Vamshi got a Firefox crash

[5:27:22 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: @Del, True.

[5:27:51 PM] vamshi: when i opened fireshot, the other firefox freezes

[5:28:01 PM] Amit Kulkarni: [5:25 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz:

<<< I have a question after these comments: who would really buy that software? It all based on under which context you want to use this tool, isn't it?

[5:28:09 PM] vamshi: i mean firefox windows freees

[5:28:17 PM] Weekend Testing: @Vamshi - you mean another instance

[5:28:18 PM] akibakib91: @ vamshi, I too observed the same.

[5:28:36 PM] vamshi: yes.

[5:28:40 PM] Mohinder Khosla: @Erkan To me software seems very flaky to start using the current version

[5:28:43 PM] Weekend Testing: @Erkan - Who will buy? I will not as of now.

[5:28:52 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: @vamshi. I gave up on Firefox and went chrome because of that

[5:29:19 PM] nitinpurswani: @Ekran The main problem for me was when I installed that software that did not even gave me the message that it is not supported on your OS. I guess this is most basic usability issue a software should handle

[5:29:41 PM] vamshi: so that i have to close fireshot again and select firefox window

[5:29:50 PM] akibakib91: @Ercon ,Who will buy ? Is not the issue/mission now.

[5:29:54 PM] Maik: (30 min official time left)

[5:29:58 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: The thing is there are free add ons that capture and edit entire web pages, so no I wont be buying

[5:30:07 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: @Erkan, it is in this state because many thousands of testers who could help the project isn't doing. I am wondering if people who had all these comments have updated the administrator of the project about this or will we be pointing it out to the project admin for him to peruse through it. Only if we did that, we may be able to answer, "Is this buyable?"

[5:30:15 PM] Santhosh S Tuppada: @Everyone, As I haven't used the PRO version [I do not know if the issues have been fixed or not] I don't have any comments as of now. I have used FireShot but, not that extensively. I use BLUR feature most of the times.

[5:31:03 PM] Weekend Testing: [5:30 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan:

I am wondering if people who had all these comments have updated the administrator of the project about this or will we be pointing it out to the project admin for him to peruse through it. Only if we did that, we may be able to answer, "Is this buyable?" WT has taken the first step by having a session.

[5:31:40 PM] Mohinder Khosla: @Amit You buy the software on the basis of the functionality and your requirements and see how much they match but do not expect critical bugs that stops you from using it. You expect them to be fixed. It is not a freeware which you install at your own risk

[5:31:40 PM] Maik: @pradeep.. but people would only invest that much time and energy, if their heat is really with a program.. nowadays its way easier to find another tool like that

[5:32:13 PM] Del Dewar: The plugin upgrade issues would have been difficult for us to reproduce since we only have access to the current version. Shame really, as they may have been easier to reproduce (with older version not being removed). Bit daunting though as you may never get it off your PC after WT :)

[5:32:40 PM] Maik: @mohinder i could live with critical bugs, if the software still fulfills my need i have. :)

[5:32:41 PM] Weekend Testing: Which tools (if any) do you use to capture full webpages?

[5:33:00 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: @Maik, there are tons of testers needing practice. For instance, Riyaj is here for practice. Testers like these can contribute to such projects. For them finding an alternate software (that is as buggy as this) might be difficult. :)

[5:33:12 PM] Maik: @WT I currently have no need to capture full webpages

[5:33:29 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: @Pradeep "For them finding an alternate software (that is as buggy as this) might be difficult. :)" grins :)

[5:33:39 PM] Maik: @pradeep.. i think finding buggy software is not really hard (sadly) ;)

Bit daunting though as you may never get it off your PC after WT :)I agree, but time was so limited as it is, can you imagine how limited our time would be if we had more versions to consider!!!

[5:33:47 PM] Mohinder Khosla: @Del They should be releasing beta or alpha versions in stages to identify critical bugs before the final commercial release

[5:33:54 PM] Del Dewar: Can capture them in sections or just capture the relevant parts if necessary.

[5:34:06 PM] Maik: @pradeep but i agree. for testing/practising purposes its good.. but then.. we put our heart into it, innit?

[5:34:13 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: @Weekend Testing: "Which tools (if any) do you use to capture full webpages?" -> there is a website which does that with different browsers also, don't remember name

[5:34:20 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: @Maik, finding a buggy software is not hard, agreed. Finding the software that can help you practice specific kind of oracles because they have specific kind of bugs is hard.

<<< @pradeep.. i think finding buggy software is not really hard (sadly ;))Good one.

[5:35:10 PM] nitinpurswani: @WT one more thing is if they make it opensource , community can help in improving the product

[5:35:17 PM] Maik: @Erkan do you mean <http://browsershots.org/> ?

[5:35:41 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: @Nitin, Depends on their goals.

[5:35:58 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: @Santhosh @Maik: All software is buggy but that's not necessarily what we want. Good testing on an extremely buggy software is way too hard because there are way too many that keeps distracting your focus.

[5:36:03 PM] Maik: @pradeep wohoo.. we had an ORACLE? thats interesting.. so.. what was teh oracle you used?

[5:36:06 PM] Maik: :)

[5:36:12 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: @Maik: another one, but similar concept, yes

[5:36:24 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: @Pradeep, Right. Agreed :)

[5:36:39 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: Consistency of bug reports with the way most testers report it : That's the oracle.

[5:36:59 PM] Maik: @pradeep.. not when the training lesson is about "distraction" and how to handle it.. but I agree, yes

[5:37:08 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: @Erkan, here is a good site which includes a full page capture, these are all good Google Chrome Extensions

[5:38:20 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: I am quick with PrntScr [ALT + PrntScr] and Microsoft Paint :)

[5:38:23 PM] Del Dewar: You can see the potential for something like this, especially if you're testing websites across different browsers and wanted to use this as part of your test log.

[5:38:51 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: @Santhosh, that doesnt collect a full web page

[5:38:51 PM] Amit Kulkarni: Question for all: If it would have been an open source tool then would like to give it a go? Or still have the same feeling of no needed?

[5:38:54 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: I am super fast with PrtSc and MS Paint

[5:39:01 PM] Del Dewar: Assuming you're not already using something like RapidReporter or TestExplorer

[5:39:33 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: [5:38 PM] Del Dewar:

<<< Assuming you're not already using something like RapidReporter or TestExplorer++ :)

[5:40:08 PM] Maik: @Amit: For me, it needs to get the job done. Dont mind that much, if it is free or not. But. If it costs money, then my expectation goes up. And if only to get proper support or fixes

[5:40:53 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: @Amit: it may also depend on things other than the state (open/closed) for me: it depends, if I am interested in that software, e.g. if I use it a lot I might even save time in teh end, besides that it helps customers, also: perhaps I want competition to rise and help not market players but smaller ones ?

[5:41:01 PM] Santhosh S Tuppad: @Michael, True. I wasn't referring to that :) I just made a comment of my usage of PrntScr and Microsoft Paint :)

[5:41:12 PM] Weekend Testing: last 20 mins. So, did pairing help?

[5:41:25 PM] Mohinder Khosla: I would use open source video screen capture s/w that use can use for screen shots as well or edit lated to keep the history of your tests

[5:41:39 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: I don't know, you got to ask my pair :D [just kidding]

[5:41:39 PM] nitinpurswani: @Amit I may try to support in some way if I like the tool and I get passionate about it or technology it is using

[5:41:56 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: @WT well I joined too late to get something reliable out of it, because I wanted to explore first myself: reported a sample test in forum, installed extension, read page + watched tutorial

[5:42:13 PM] Del Dewar: PrintScr/Paint a good combo but VERY time consuming if you're on a ET session and also if you want to be disk efficient and use JPG as opposed to bulky default BMP.

[5:42:24 PM] Erkan__Yilmaz: otherwise I would have just cost Mohinder's time too much :(

[5:42:31 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: I think I would agree with an earlier comment of using Skype call in order to keep hands free, then pairing will be better

[5:42:49 PM] Jassi: unofficially I use FSCapture any one used it

[5:45:56 PM] Del Dewar: First time for me too, not paired, but found this a real blast all the same.

[5:46:34 PM] Maik: and hey... for the anniversary of the 50th session.. big turnout as well

[5:46:36 PM] Del Dewar: Can we get a commemorative "I was at the 50th Weekend Testing Session badge" ?

[5:46:40 PM] Jassi: yes @Maik voice chat was a good idea indeed

[5:46:42 PM] vamshi: eventhough my laptop speaker is having some problem, i managed to talk with nitin and it's a great experience

[5:46:50 PM] Mohinder Khosla: I was more interested in looking at the bug reports and found how little information in it to reproduce and work on a bug because they have been reported by end uses and not by testers. I wonder how many testers the team working on fireshot have. some of these bugs should have been captured at system testing stage or even in unit testing.It is not a complex piece of software.

[5:46:56 PM] Weekend Testing: Last question from my side: Did you meet the mission? (wait)

[5:48:49 PM] Del Dewar: Did we meet the mission? Not fully, but given more time I'm sure we would.

[5:49:13 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan: Santhosh & I paired up (offline pairup, not online) as he was sitting next to me.

[5:49:28 PM] Mohinder Khosla: I only want a badge if it has max start 5* at least

[5:49:35 PM] Del Dewar: You could tell the FireShot people that our contracting rates are reasonable, and we'll do anything for a free badge :)

[5:49:49 PM] Maik: @Erkan. exactly.. Like I .. i am the single tester at work.. so now i could use some chat bouncing when i have some questions or ideas

[5:49:55 PM] Amit Kulkarni: [5:49 PM] Mohinder Khosla:

<<< I only want a badge if it has max start 5* at leastTo represent 5 bugs? :)

[5:50:02 PM | Edited 5:50:23 PM] Weekend Testing: lol @Del: now you want a badge from Fireshot?

[5:50:17 PM] Jassi: [5:49 PM] Pradeep Soundararajan:

<<< Santhosh & I paired up (offline pairup, not online) as he was sitting next to me.

[5:50:25 PM | Edited 5:50:30 PM] Jassi: nice pairing

[5:50:37 PM] Michael Rose-Nel: No I dont think we did meet the mission, but a good learning curve for all of us. I feel we all changed the mission to look at the failings of Fireshots bug reporting as apposed to the bugs!
